2. Mr. Proctor reported that Mr. Colby was full of praise for the OBGI geographers and the cartographers who have been so heavily involved of late on the Mid East account.

3. Mr. Colby wants CRS to put together an experimental film containing portraits of world leaders the President may meet in future trips. Mr. Eisenbeiss will look into this and also will resurrect an earlier CRS film for possible DCI viewing.

4. There will be a Career Service Board Meeting on senior schools' nominees following Tuesday's Executive Council Meeting.

5. Mr. Proctor announced a number of personnel changes in DDS&T with the most prominent being Sayre Stevens to replace Don Steininger as A/DDS&T.

6. Mr. Lehman is drafting a memorandum to the DCI recommending that the NID become a permanent publication. This recommendation is based on the strongly positive results of OCI's recent survey of consumer interest in the newspaper.
